

Society of Cosmetic Chemists Announces 1970 Scholarship Grants

The Board of Directors of the Society of Cosmetic Chemists has approved 1970 scholarship grants totalling $4,300. The Society's Scholarship Chairman, Dr. Winthrop E. Lange, has announced allocation to six universities:

Purdue University School of Pharmacy, Lafayette, Ind., Professor Glen J. Sperandio; continuation grant of $1,000 to support the undergraduate program in cosmetics.

West Virginia University School of Pharmacy, Morgantown, W. Va., Professor Paul Zanowiak; continuation grant of $500 to support undergraduate seminars in cosmetics.

Roosevelt University Department of Chemistry, Chicago, Ill., Professor Walter S. Guthmann; continuation grant of $500 for teaching equipment.

Columbia University College of Pharmaceutical Sciences, New York, N. Y., Dean Joseph L. Kanig; continuation grant of $500 for laboratory equipment.

Northeastern University College of Pharmacy, Boston, Mass., Professor Frederick J. Pruyn; new grant of $500 for graduate student assistance.

University of Cincinnati College of Pharmacy, Cincinnati, Ohio, Professor W. A. Ritschel; new grant of $800 for partial support of a graduate student.

University of Cincinnati College of Pharmacy, Cincinnati, Ohio, Professor J. Leon Lichten; new grant of $500 to support the undergraduate program in cosmetics.

Additional funds are available for allocation during 1970. Interested faculty members should contact Dr. Lange.