

Society of Cosmetic Chemists Literature Award to Dr. Kenji Adachi

The 1972 Cosmetic Chemists Literature Award was presented to Dr. Kenji Adachi of the University of Miami at the annual meeting held in New York City.

Formal presentation was made to Dr. Adachi by Dr. Martin Rieger, the 1972 President of the Society, during the luncheon ceremonies on December 12th. The award consists of a scroll and an honorarium of $1,500. Eulogist for Dr. Adachi was Dr. Bernard Idson of Hoffman-La Roche Inc. Dr. Adachi was honored for his pioneering work in elucidating the enzymatic processes underlying the metabolism of skin, sebaceous glands, and hair follicles.

Left to right: Society President Martin M. Rieger, Literature Award recipient Kenji Adachi, Mrs. Kenji Adachi, and Eulogist Bernard Idson