THE NEW YORK Chapter of the SOCIETY OF COSMETIC CHEMISTS had the following guest speakers for the first three meetings of 1957:

January meeting—Dr. James Dutcher, Department Head, Division of Organic Chemistry, Squibb Institute for Medical Research.

Dr. Dutcher's topic was "Recent Chemical Studies of Antifungal and Other Antibiotics and Their Potential Use in Dermatology and Cosmetics."

February meeting—William P. Grayson, Eastern Advertising Manager of Johnson Publications, and A. J. Morgan of the Apex Hair and News Company.

The topic for the evening was "The Negro Market and Cosmetics." Mr. Grayson discussed the subject from the advertising and market research phase, and Mr. Morgan discussed the development of hair products for the Negro market.

March meeting—B. T. Palermo, Manager—Technical Service, Medicinal Chemicals, Chemical Division, Merck & Co.

Mr. Palermo spoke on "Vitamins and their Dermatological Applications."

The April meeting was devoted entirely to the annual "Ladies Night" of the New York Chapter.
