

Society of Cosmetic Chemists Medal Award to Samuel Zuckerman

The Society of Cosmetic Chemists has presented its 1970 Medal Award to Dr. Samuel Zuckerman, Vice President and Director, H. Kohnstamm & Co., Inc., New York City.

The Society's Medal Award, its highest honor, is presented annually to the scientist or individual who has, over a period of years, contributed significantly to the advancement of cosmetic science, cosmetic scientists, and the cosmetic industry.

The award was formally presented at the December 1st luncheon session during the Society's annual meeting at the Americana Hotel, New York City. Mr. Paul L. Kohnstamm, President of H. Kohnstamm & Co., Inc., served as Eulogist.

Left to right: Eulogist Mr. Paul L. Kohnstamm; Medalist Dr. Samuel Zuckerman; and the Society's President, Mr. Charles Fox